LOUIS, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,	ORDER MODIFYING BRIEFING
Plaintiff,	<ul><li>) SCHEDULE REGARDING</li><li>) DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS</li></ul>
v.	) (re: dkt. #48)
INTUITIVE SURGICAL, INC., ET AL.,	)
Defendants.	)

On March 24, 2011, in an effort to support the parties' discussions regarding potential settlement, the Court adopted the parties' stipulation extending the time to file the amended complaint, the motion to dismiss, and the opposition to the motion to dismiss. See Dkt. #46. Unfortunately, however, it appears that the parties' efforts at resolving this case have not yet been successful. Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint on April 15, 2011, and Defendants filed a motion to dismiss, with voluminous exhibits totaling nearly 300 pages, on May 23, 2011. Defendants' motion to dismiss is noticed for hearing on August 11, 2011. Under the current schedule, Plaintiffs' opposition is not due until July 7, 2011, while Defendants' reply is not due until July 25, 2011.

In anticipation of extensive briefing and exhibits on both sides, the Court would benefit from a slightly more expedited briefing schedule in advance of the August 11, 2011 hearing.
